GENERAL INFORMATION:

The AIDA is a sleek and modern recessed lighting fixture designed for seamless integration into ceilings and walls. Its minimalist linear profile and high-quality build make it a perfect choice for enhancing residential and commercial spaces with a refined lighting solution. Crafted using BYIBA’s innovative materials and advanced manufacturing techniques, this fixture delivers both durability and elegance. The invisible frame design ensures a clean, flush finish once installed and painted, blending perfectly into any architectural surface. Perfect for hallways, staircases, living rooms, office interiors, and retail displays where clean design and subtle illumination are key.
