GENERAL INFORMATION:

The BYIBA AMOS is a contemporary wall lamp with a sinuous, sculptural presence—handcrafted in Italy and designed to resemble a protruding fragment of architecture. Its elegant form is cast from artisan ceramic and emits soothing dual-directional light, bathing both upward and downward surfaces in luminous ambiance. Its design seems to emerge organically from the wall, casting both upward and downward light in a graceful and symmetrical dance. With its integrated LED module, customizable paintable surface, and artisanal roots, this lamp melds form and function in a modern, architectural statement.
